

Blythe McGarvie

Commissioner, NACD Blue Ribbon Commission

Ms. McGarvie recently completed two years of teaching and research in the accounting and management unit at the Harvard Business School (HBS). Prior to teaching at HBS, Ms. McGarvie served as chief executive officer and founder of Leadership for International Finance, offering a global perspective for clients seeking profitable growth. She was the chief financial officer for two major corporations, and currently serves as a board member of Sonoco, LKQ Corp., Apple Hospitality REIT, and Wawa. She is also a member of the Lyric Opera of Chicago board of directors and the Chicago Network. Ms. McGarvie is the author of two books: Shaking the Globe: Courageous Decision-Making in a Changing World and Fit In, Stand Out: Mastering the FISO Factor: The Key to Leadership Effectiveness in Business and Life.