

David Ormesher

Founder and Chief Executive Officer, closerlook, inc.

Mr. Ormesher provides leadership and direction for closerlook, inc., a digital marketing agency serving the pharmaceutical industry. He has grown closerlook from a small, creative media boutique into a recognized leader in creating technology-based relationship marketing solutions that help pharmaceutical brands build and maintain meaningful relationships with their most valuable health care professionals. In addition to closerlook, Mr. Ormesher serves as chairman of the Lyric Opera of Chicago and is on the Foundation Board of Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago and the board of MATTER Chicago, a startup incubator for health care tech companies. Internationally, he is a board member of the UK-based Aegis Trust and is the founder of Bigger Future, a nonprofit business and leadership training program based in Rwanda. He lives in Chicago with his family and spends his free time running and sailboat racing.
