

Marian A. Godfrey

Former Senior Director of Culture Initiatives, Pew Charitable Trusts

Ms. Godfrey directed the cultural initiatives of the Pew Charitable Trusts for 22 years, overseeing programs that support the arts and heritage in Philadelphia and nationally. She currently serves as a donor to and cultural advisor for the Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation. Ms. Godfrey has extensive experience in nonprofit arts management, production, fundraising, strategic planning, and grant making, having worked for the Ensemble Studio Theater, Mabou Mines, and Dance Theater Workshop and consulted with both grant-seeking and grant-making organizations and programs, including the La Jolla Playhouse and AT&T OnStage. She currently serves on the boards of the League of American Orchestras and TDC, a management consulting firm. Previously, she served on the boards of Grantmakers in the Arts, the Theater Communications Group, the Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation, and the Maine College of Art and was the founding chair of the National Arts Policy Roundtable of Americans for the Arts and the Sundance Institute.
