

Scott Turow

Author, Attorney

Mr. Turow is an attorney and a writer, the author of 11 best-selling works of fiction. His books have also won a number of literary awards. He frequently contributes essays and op-ed pieces to publications such as the New York Times and the Washington Post, Vanity Fair, the New Yorker, Playboy, and the Atlantic. Mr. Turow continues to work as an attorney and has been active in a number of charitable causes, including organizations that promote literacy, education, and legal rights. He has served as president of the Authors Guild and is an emeritus trustee of Amherst College. He was the first chair of the Illinois Executive Ethics Commission. Appointed to the Commission by Illinois Governor George Ryan, he was among those who considered reform of the capital punishment system.